RE-VISION is a week of guided prayers designed to posture our hearts before God as we seek His fresh vision for our lives—vision that aligns with His kingdom and is offered for the sake of the world.

The anchor Scripture for RE-VISION is Isaiah 6:1-8.

This vision given to Isaiah becomes our model for prayer this week—a sacred movement from revelation to mission. There are six guided prayers to help us slow down, listen, and open ourselves to the Spirit's work of renewal. There will be space and room for contemplation and personal response.

Day one: revelation

We look at Isaiah 6:1
"I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne..."
Everything begins with a revelation of who God truly is—not who we imagine Him to be, but as He reveals Himself. Our hearts are awakened by His glory and majesty.

Day two: reverence

We look at Isaiah 6:2–4
"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty;
the whole earth is full of His glory."
When we truly see God, our response is reverence. The holiness of God demands awe, and we are rightly moved to worship in humility and wonder.

Day three: repentance

We look at Isaiah 6:5
"Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips..."
A true encounter with God exposes our sinfulness. We recognize our need for mercy and turn to Him in repentance, trusting in His love and grace.

Day four: restoration

We look at Isaiah 6:6–7
"Your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for."
God is faithful to forgive. Through Jesus, we are cleansed, healed, and restored into right relationship with Him. He doesn't just expose our sin—He redeems it.

Day five: re-quest
We look at Isaiah 6:8a
"Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?"
God invites us into His mission. He requests our lives and re-quests our lives—not for our own plans, but for His purposes in the world.

Day six: realigned
We look at Isaiah 6:8b
"Here am I. Send me!"
Our response is surrender. We allow our lives to be realigned to His calling, offering ourselves freely and fully for His glory.

Day seven: rejoice
We conclude our week in celebration with an evening of praise, worship, and testimonies. We rejoice in how God has met us, spoken to us, and drawn us deeper into His love and mission. We encourage one another to keep walking in obedience to His voice. If you are joining us at home, we invite you to spend this day wor-shipping God in your own way, whether listening to worship songs, taking a walk in nature

So let us begin with Revelation
